DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Claim 7 withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected Species II-III, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 7/17/2006.
2. Applicant's election without traverse of Species I in the reply filed on 7/17/2006 is acknowledged.

Drawings

3. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(4) because reference character "9" has been used to designate both a mounting plate and a plate region. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

4. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

Claim Objections

5. Claim 4 is objected to because of the following informalities: in line 3 "a frame seat" is not correct language. The examiner suggests changing to "a seat frame." Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claim 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Enders (US 5,799,970) in view of Sakane et al. (US 6,554,312). Enders discloses an airbag assembly being mounted on a seat and forming part of the structure of the seat (see Figure 1), wherein the assembly includes: an airbag unit (10), and a mounting member (4) with a plurality of projections (102) and the projections configures to form a snap connection. However, Enders fails to disclose having a spring to form the snap connection between the airbag unit and the mounting member. Regarding claim 2, Enders discloses the air-bag unit has a first set of locking formations and the mounting member has a second set of locking formations (see Figure 1), the locking formations of one of the first or second sets being apertures and the locking formations of the other of the first or second sets being projections (102 and 58), the apertures at least partially receiving a respective one of the projection. Sakane et al. disclose having a locking wire (23) that acts as a spring and is put into locking engagement with the mounting member in order to hold the mounting member to the airbag unit (see Figure 2). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have put the spring lock of Sakane et al. on the airbag unit of Enders in order to provide a more secure connection for mounting.

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claims 3-9 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The following are seat airbag units: Kan et al. (US 6,386,577), Severinski et al. (US 5,951,039), Davis et al. (US 5,683,101), Ryl et al. (US 6,234,518), Higashiura et al. (US 5,816,610), and Maly et al. (US 5,845,930).
